Responsibility, an anchor around my neck
Dependability, made me a nervous wreck
Accountability, I live from check to check
Volatility, neglect and no respect

Got my wheels in motion
And I got a path to beat
I hit the road to I don't know
And look for Tough Shit Street

One-way ticket nowhere
There's no windows on this train
Can't see where I'm headed
But I'm going there again

Moto psycho
(Going nowhere)
Everybody is a
Moto psycho
Move it or lose it baby
Moto psycho
(Going nowhere)
100 miles an hour
Moto psycho
I'm a moto psycho
Moto psycho

You know you can't resist to tell me what I mean
You gave my mind a twist said that I was unclean
The actor runs the play and ad-libs in between You're all that I resent my thoughts were so obscene

Got my wheels in motion
And I got a path to beat
I hit the road to I don't know
And look for Tough Shit Street

One-way ticket nowhere
There's no windows on this train
Can't see where I'm headed
But I'm going there again

Moto psycho
(Going nowhere)
Everybody is a
Moto psycho
Move it or lose it baby
Moto psycho
(Going nowhere)
100 miles an hour
Moto psycho
I'm a moto psycho

One-way ticket nowhere
There's no windows on this train
Can't see where I'm headed
But I'm going there again

Moto psycho
(Going nowhere)
Everybody is a
Moto psycho
Moto psycho
(Going nowhere)
Move it or lose it baby
Moto psycho

Moto psycho
(Where I'm headed I don't know but [Incomprehensible])
Moto psycho
I'm showing off I hit the road
(Moto psycho)
(Going nowhere)
Anywhere I'm going there

Moto psycho
Moto psycho
Moto psycho
