Hiding in then the door way
And then the shadow
Any place where danger
Waits to kill my time

There is one who loves and waits
To seal your fate
I?m sure as you live and die
Live and die, live and die

When you feel that something?s wrong
I'll shelter you and keep you warm
I'll never let you walk alone
I loved you when you still hated me

I?m comin? and I won't be long
Time to reap what I have sown
Never ever let you walk alone
I know your enemy it once was me

Let me wrap my arms all around you
Suffer the trespasses that you made
I will drink your pain away
Forever and a day

If you just call out my name
If you just call
Call my name
If you just call, feeling desperate

When you feel that something?s wrong
I'll shelter you and keep you warm
I'll never let you walk alone
I loved you when you still hated me

I?m comin? and I won't be long
It?s time to reap what I have sown
Never ever let you walk alone
I know your enemy it once was me

When you feel that something?s wrong
I'll shelter you and keep you warm

I'll never let you walk alone
I loved you when you still hated me

I'm comin' and I won't be long
It's time to reap what I have sown
Never ever let you walk alone
I know your enemy it once was me

When you feel that something's wrong
I'll shelter you and keep you warm
I'll never let you walk alone
I loved you when you still hated me

I'm comin' and I won't be long
Time to reap what I have sown
Never ever let you walk alone
I know your enemy it once was me
