The doctor is calling
The doctor is calling

Something's going wrong
Nowhere do I belong
I listen to the voices in the dark room

Something's going down
But I can't make a sound
Looking past the bars of my mind

The coat arm's falling
I hear the doctor calling

The family crest is falling
I hear the doctor calling

Always sharing trips
Remove me from your lips
Sight and mind is still and never go away

One too many tantrums
Deviated symptoms
Better lock the phantom away

The coat arm's falling
I hear the doctor calling

The family crest is falling
I hear the doctor calling

I see the chalkline crawling
I hear the doctor calling me away

This place is my home
My mind still runs free
The doctor's prescription
Less for you and more for me

The coat arm's falling
I hear the doctor calling

The family crest is falling
I hear the doctor calling

I see the chalkline crawling
I hear the doctor calling

A merciful embalming
I hear the doctor calling me away

Away
Away
