Should I wait for you?
Would you make me stand alone?
Could I take you back to the bible belt I'm from?
Would you feel my words?
Will they lift you from the floor?
Will you break my heart when the feelings go for long

Won't you take my hand?
Could you be my girl?
Can't you stay with me
In a perfect world
Won't you cherish me,
Can't you start today
Will you bleed for me?
Will you start it all today?

Could I lay with you?
Taste your skin and feel your love
Will you rise with me?
To the stars that shine above
If I make you stay, if you crumble I'll be strong
In our world today, and the violins they flow

Won't you take my hand?
Could you be my girl?
Can't you stay with me
In a perfect world
Won't you cherish me,
Can't you start today
Can't you bleed for me?
Will you start it all today?

Won't you cherish me,
Can't you start today
Will you bleed for me?
Will you start it all today
