I don't mind the world today
The Fear in me is strong,
And I love you
No One had to fend,
To fold, to see, with me
Tonight

And it starts when you fall
It ends when you change your life
Give you my soul,
As long as you find your way.
Starts when you fall
It ends when you change your life
Give you my soul,
As long as you find your way.

Well I don't mind the sun today,
Faith, in me is strong,
And I love you
you Never had to fend,
To fold, to see, with me
Tonight.

And it starts when you fall
It ends when you change your life
Give you my soul,
As long as you find your way.
Starts when you fall
It ends when you change your life
Give you my soul,
As long as you find your way.

Take Back, spread you in,
Take it from you far away
Take all your life
Like an end this moment
Take Back, it's hard to kill,
Bring back the ones you could fend
Treat everything like a broken open

Ends when it changes your life
Give you my soul, as long as you find your way.

Starts when you fall and ends when it changes your life
Give you my soul, as long as you find your way to shine
To shine

It starts when you fall.
It starts when you fall.
