I'm not worth your truth anymore
I'm numb to the pain, it made me sore

Bring me hate, watch me bleed again
Lie to fate, let her break what doesn't bend

See me as everything I couldn't be

I am fragile, but I'm strong enough
I am wanted, enemy number one
I am lying 'cause I never fell
If you need me follow me to hell

I have tried to feel the same as you
But in the end I can see that you lied too

Obsess me as everything you want to be

I am fragile but I'm strong enough
I am wanted, enemy number one
I am lying 'cause I never fell
If you need me follow me to hell

I came undone as you began to fly
To be free I'll need my hands tied

I am fragile but I'm strong enough
I am wanted, enemy number one
I am lying 'cause I never fell
If you need me follow me, follow me

I am fragile but I'm strong enough
I am wanted, enemy number one
I am lying 'cause I never fell
If you need me follow me to hell
