I am the saboteur and I'll let you into my world Sometimes it's hard to live and sometimes it's hard to love me
I keep pushing you away, doing things so you won't stay with me

Wouldn't it be cool, if I could let it go
All of the things that I never seem to control

I am the saboteur and I'm fighting inside my mind
The harder I ignore it, the more it crashes down I see how far you, push me babe, see if I fade away in time

Wouldn't it be cool, if I could let it go
All of the things that I never learn to control

I am the saboteur and I'll let you into my world
And I'm never here but I'll never let you know, Well I'm the big means anymore, anymore as I stand tall

Wouldn't it be cool, if I could let it go Wouldn't it be cool, if I could let it all go
Wouldn't it be cool, if I could let it go Wouldn't it be cool, if I just let it go
