"Higher Love"

(V1)

You walk in your front door
You're hearing the sounds of war
There's no use to keep the score
So you're walking back out your front door

(CH)

But there's a higher love
Can make a new tomorrow
Higher love

(V2)

You know that there's no way
No chance, back off, no way
It breaks your heart to stay
So you walk, you don't need this today

(BRIDGE)

I'm too confused
This place is too cruel
Won't someone tell me something true
I'm too confused
This place is too cruel
Won't someone tell me something true
Someone tell me the truth
I'm too confused
Someone tell me
Tell me the truth
I tell you the truth
