"I Look At You"

I look at you
And my eyes must admire
All that you are
That you show of desire

Soon I'm aglow
And the flames mounting higher
Bent by your touch
By my lips on your lovely face

I hold you close
And my heart's like an ocean
Filled with the waves
And the storms of emotion

Formed in the part
Of your arms
There's devotion

I come to shore
Come to rest
In your warm embrace

I look at you
And your eyes shine with wonder
For I am free
Of the storm
And the thunder

And if
Of your touch
And I'm under

Sooo, hold me tight
Very tight
When I look at you
(When I look at you)
When I look at you!
