When did I choose to be blind
When did we come into all of this
So close to being together alone
But I still want in

To be alive, never without you
Alive, always and you
In step, in mind, in time, alive

When did we forget to be blind
When did we become all of this
Just to want to be alone together alive

We were, you are
It's just the same as always
Still we, still you are beautiful to me
In dreams, for life, for wanting
Always alive

One step to take us
One life to hold us
Forget to remember the small
To the wishes, to the wants

Alive, never without you
Alive, always and you
In step, in mind, in time, alive

We were, you are...

Come tide, come wind, come answers
Come here, come time, come wonderful
Come spark, come wind, come be with me
Come in, come with, come

It's never enough, we're never enough
Always alive, always alive

It's just the same as always
You're beautiful to me
In dreams, for life, for wanting

Always alive
