When I first saw you it was love,
But now you went far away from me baby.
But now you're back and it's driving me crazy,
I want to spend all my time with you.

You are so fun to hang around,
And I hope you think the same of me baby.
But your cigarettes are probably going to kill me,
But it's fine as long as you're on my side.

27 months ago I never thought I know,
That you would be forever in my mind.
But it's getting hard to tell. the magic in your spell
And I don't wanna be just another guy.

You probably don't have a clue,
Just what your ass can do to me baby.
Till (something)
Got to find a way to keep you around.

27 months ago I never thought I know,
That you would be forever in my mind.
But it's getting hard to tell. the magic in your spell
And I don't wanna be just another guy.

So, no matter what I say, no matter what I do,
I still can't get over you (I still can't get over you)
So, no matter what I say, no matter what I do,
I still can't get over you (I still can't get over you)

Now I'm concerned with every word I say (word I say)
I'm so messed up on you, why do I act this way?

So, no matter what I say, no matter what I do,
I still can't get over you (I still can't get over you)
So, no matter what I say, no matter what I do,
I still can't get over you (I still can't get over you)

So, no matter what I say, no matter what I do,
I still can't get over you (I still can't get over you)
So, no matter what I say, no matter what I do,
I still can't get over you (I still can't get over you)
