I don't know why I fell for you,
It was something I couldn't ever do,
You led me on you told me things you didn't mean.

I've been a fool right from the start,
I always knew that you would break my heart.
I didn't know that you said that we will be best friends.

Why do I even try, she's off with some other guy,
I'm at home all alone, 'cause I ain't happy again.

Girl, you want nothing to do with me,
You want nothing to do with me,
It's so easy to see you just weren't happy with me.

Well you, you second guessed,
And I knew that I couldn't stop the stress.
SOMETHING
When you stopped at me

Why do I even try, she's off with some other guy.
I'm at home all alone, 'cause I ain't happy again.

Girl, you want nothing to do with me,
You want nothing to do with me,
It's so easy to see you just weren't happy with me.
