I saw you in the bleachers
And I hope that I'll see you tonight
Yeah my jaw dropped wide open
And I knew you were out of sight

Well girl you know you are a knock-out
And you know I will treat you alright
When you say that you're too cool for me
Deep inside I know that you're right

Well I'll do anything
I'll laugh and I'll sing
If you'll be my homecoming queen
[x2]

[repeat song]

Well I'll do anything
I'll laugh and I'll sing
If you'll be my homecoming queen
[x2]
