

The Lord Weird Slough Feg "Walls Of Shame"

While you stay
Behind the walls of gray
While you pray
The black and white won't stay

The end will haunt your cradle every night
Black and white
The lies that make you stable burn in the rite
Black and white

While you hide
Behind the walls of shame
Deep inside
You know your master's game

The end will haunt your cradle every night
Black and white
The lies that make you stable burn in the rite
Black and white

"Look down below your feet
And down there is a well
Let Obscuranists cry
That down there's only hell"
