It was written on my mind

Like the back of an envelope

Rehearsed and very carefully in reach

My cool cucumber non-committal speech

That I wrote while hanging out down at the beach

And I shivered from the cold of the ice in my granite heart

Knowing that you didn't have a prayer

And then I rang the bell and you were there and darling

Then your face was full of me

And then your eyes were too

And I knew, that you knew that I knew that

You knew that I knew that you knew that

I knew that you knew that I knew

I regained my self-control and I tried to close my big fat mouth

Before 'I love you' fell out on the floor

I didn't feel like that man anymore

I hit my funny elbow on the floor

And then your brother asked if I had money for a haircut

And the pimple on my neck began to hurt

Suddenly I wished I'd changed my shirt and darling

Then your face was full of me

And then your eyes were too

And I knew that you knew that I knew that

You knew that I knew that you knew that

I knew that you knew that I knew
