You've locked your soul and kept the key.
I'm all yours and it's no secret.
I adore the way your mouth moves
when you say those three words,
I adore the way your mouth moves
when you repeat them, will you repeat them?

Don't be careful with me. I'm not so delicate.
I gave you my heart.
I know the chance I'm taking.
Don't hesitate in love.
It can leave your soul undone.
You can't stick your toes in the water. You gotta jump
and finally go underwater.

You're holding back and I can tell.
When you only give half you're never whole.
I am ready to trust your eyes in all this darkness.
I am ready to see your sides that cause you unrest, rest them.

Don't be careful with me. I'm not so delicate.
I gave you my heart.
I know the chance I'm taking.
Don't hesitate in love.
It can leave your soul undone.
You can't stick your toes in the water. You gotta jump
and finally go underwater.
