We're sailing on an ocean heading for nowhere

Across the city
Left my car in the lot
Should have follow electricity??
So I can see the stars

We're sailing on an ocean heading for nowhere

And I don't care

I ran out to the seaside
Stripped of all my clothes
Yeah, laugh is just a short ride
I let it overflow
Whoa, whoa, whoa
And the clock is ticking
It's not slowing down
It's better late than never
To change your life around

We're sailing on an ocean heading for nowhere

And I don't care

Do what you want to do
Love who you want to love
Do what you want to do
Love who you want to love
Do what you want to do
Love who you want to love

We're sailing on an ocean heading for nowhere

Do what you want to do
