This time around, I'm feeling blue.
Things were a dream for a short while.
I'm feeling pain. Think it's still you.
I shouldn't have said what was said, Oh.

I've tried everything a stronger woman should be, like a tree, never bowing or bending.

Baby, alright, there I've said it.
Since I told you to leave, I've been thinking.
Baby, come back, I can't help it.
When you leave my side my whole world stands still.
Babe, ok, fine, I'll admit it.
In my life I need you, I need you in it.

Remember the words, I said to you,
Was give me some space some alone time.
I changed my mind, and I called to you,
I heard your sweet voice on the telephone.

And you said, "My love how could I ever stop loving you. I'm already on my way home."

Baby, alright, there I've said it.
Since I told you to leave, I've been thinking.
Baby, come back, I can't help it.
When you leave my side my whole world stands still.
Babe, ok, fine, I'll admit it.
In my life I need you, I need you in it.

Already on his way home.
I'm gonna see you so soon.
On my way back to you, oh, back to you.

Baby, alright, there I've said it.
Since I told you to leave, I've been thinking.
Baby, come back, I can't help it.
When you leave my side my whole world stands still.
Babe, ok, fine, I'll admit it.
In my life I need you, I need you in it.
