Will I always stare at that shore
Wondering, what's it for?
Will I never venture out
And see the world, do I dare to see it now?

Listen to me, you lonely thing
You've come too far to just give up
It's just always more, it's time to explore
What the inside of your heart looks like

I leave paranoia only for love
Only for love, only for love
I'd be a believer only for love
Only for love, only for love

When we forget why we're proud
Time's a rotten friend
It's hard to learn it now
Doesn't matter what they say
Love will slide your backbone into place

Won't you listen to me, you silly thing
You've been away for far too long
It's just up ahead, get with the rest of it
I'm onto your side, now come along

I leave paranoia only for love
Only for love, only for love
I'd be a believer only for love
Only for love, only for love

I leave paranoia only for love
Only for love, only for love
I'd be a believer only for love
Only for love, only for love.
