Breathe in slowly, canvassing
She was only seventeen, he saved her, he saved her
Love that holds you, send me over
She left now, to drink alone
He saved her he saved her
Let the love die, by the open door

He said don't let me fall
He said, don't let me go, don't let me go and die
And he said it's not your fault
He said, don't let me go, don't let me go and die

I've gone crazy but just maybe
Maybe I thought that you might save me
Take me to a place that's far away dear, I won't look down
You said you're not cheating but you still scared me
Everything you say has become unclear
Everything I say now is an act dear, but don't look down

And he said don't let me fall
He said, don't let me go, don't let me go this time
And he said it's not your fault
He said, don't let me fall, don't let me fall this time

(She) was only seventeen, he saved her, he saved her
Never hope to find the other
She was only left alone
But they lost, but they lost
Never hope to find the secret chord

He said it's not my fault
He said, don't let me go, don't let me go this time
And he said just don't look down
He said, don't let me go, don't let me go this time

And he said it's not my fault

No it's not your fault this time
I know it's not your fault
Don't let me go, don't let me go this time
