I'm here, I'm scared
You're coming home
The fear will tear me
Till you're gone
I rip your tendrils from inside
But you'll be home tonight
No matter what they say to me
I keep eating shit
So they won't see
How poor your life is
In the end - it's the end

Inhale and exhale and
You're here and I'm dead
Your steps in the doorway
Demon comes to get me!

Hey! I throw it all away
Falling in your fire
Every single day
But I'll be a demon dear
Screaming in your ears
Now get outta here!
Get outta here!
I smell your breath you're
Calling me - you want your doll
Cause you can't sleep
Nobody can save me from death
No one except myself
But I learned to cut your
Violence out
And now I choose to live without
That screaming silence in my head
You're dead!
