"My Soul"

Reflections got so clear and
The mirror hurts but it can't lie
The shell I built is broken
The fire's back to melt the ice
My life is like the thunder
How could I live without the sound
Acting a part I blundered
I change my skin
I'm back around!
(I can feel you here)
And I'm not dreamin'
(I can feel you near)
I'm not alone and you're not gone
I'm not alone!
My soul is exploding
It's white just like the lightning
My soul is reloading
It's dark just like the thunder!
I'm back with all my weakness
With all the tears, with all the laughs
I burned my mask of bleakness
I rock again
