Visit "Outsider" on MotoLyrics.com

All you need is what you got,
Everything you hate is what you not,
Even if you feel there's nothing wrong,
There's a pain that's going on,
There's a pain that's growing strong.

Everything you need is what you got,
But the rain's now falls down,
Everything you hate is what you not,
Outsider,
Even if you feel there's nothing wrong,
There's a pain that's going on,
There's a pain that's growing strong,
And the pain that's going on,
And the pain that's going on...

You're alone again under the stars,
And you afraid flight for them,
Thoes alone again, you won't go far,
Outsider,
Anywhere you go you don't belong,
Do the pain and you ring along,
And the pain is going on,
And the pain is going on,
And the pain is going on...
