The ground is burning burning
I need to hide
The sky is turning turning yeah
And I can fly
I'm sick of all the people
I'm sick of living living yeah
And all I need is
Run away run away run away from love
Run away from hate
Run away run away from you
I've got to run now
It's time to burn
It's time to fly
(Runaway runaway runaway now)
(Time is bleeding I've got to run away)
I am so unsubstantial
That you can't touch me
And you can't hurt me anymore
Cause you can't see me
But I can see you naked
With all the sins you hide
Yeah now you are naked to the bone
And this is why I...
Run away from love
Run away from death...
