Just a little bit now
And a little bit later
Just a little kiss now
Save the rest for later
You can't take love too fast
Or it will never, never last
Just a little bit, just a little bit now
Just a little bit now
And a little bit later
Take it easy with lovin'
And the lovin' gets greater
If you want love to grow
You gotta take it very, very slow
Just a little bit, just a little bit now
You know I want your lovin'
But not for just today
We've got to plan ahead
Or else our love will surely slip away
Just a little bit now
And a little bit later
Don'cha know that your kisses

Never lose their flavor
And now that you are mine
There's no rush, we got a lotta time
Just a little bit, just a little bit now
You know I want your lovin'
But not for just today
We've got to plan ahead
Or else our love will surely slip away
Just a little bit now
And a little bit later
Don'cha know that your kisses
Never lose their flavor
And now that you are mine
There's no rush
We got a lot of time
Just a little bit, just a little bit now
And a little bit later,
And a little bit now, now, now, now
A little bit later...
