I'm just a dog-eared paged you turn back to.
Where's the place for me
When we're both in love with you?

I can't escape these friends
I've made since you've left town.
They throw redundant parties
Where I'm too often found.
And while I sit and watch girls and boys
Trade views of new tatoos,
I wonder if it's too late to call your mom and catch up on some news.
She says you'll be home soon for me

And it'll be just like you were never gone.
I'll try to just some guy you're getting on.
But basically we're both in love with you.
I'm just a dog-eared paged you turn back to.
Where's the place for me
When we're both in love with you?

I've got these "friends" in quotes And girls* w/asterisks.
I watch the time wither
and fall from my wrists.

Out on the porch Van Morrison is bleeding through the walls.
I don't think your room mate has been writing down my calls.
She says you'll be home soon for me

You said the distance
would make a difference,
but it didn't.

And it'll be just like you were never gone.
I'll try to just some guy you're getting on.
But basically we're both in love with you.
I'm just a dog-eared paged you turn back to.
Where's the place for me

When we're both in love with you?
Yeah where's the place for me
When we're both in love with you?
