If you stay
Tell me you will
Don't hide in the dark
Don't hide in the dark

If you need
A way to come home
Well here is your start
Here is your start

Don't you walk away
Those bottles are everywhere
And I can't be everywhere
To keep them from you

Won't you promise me
To live for another day
Those bottle won't wash away,
They won't wash away
The memories of you

Can you hear
Yourself when you speak
That voice isn't yours
That voice isn't yours

Take my hand, take my hand
It's not the end, no it's not the end
Get up off the floor
That's what I'm here for

Don't you walk away
Those bottles are everywhere
And I can't be everywhere
To keep them from you

Won't you promise me
To live for another day
Those bottle won't wash away,
They won't wash away
The memories of you

If you're gone
Oh, If you're gone

Remember the ones that have fallen before you
Put it down
Put it down
Remember the family that loves and adores you
Get off the ground
Get off the ground

Remember the ones that have fallen before you
Put it down
Put it down
Remember the family that loves and adores you
Get yourself off of the ground

Don't walk away
Those bottles are everywhere
To keep them from you

Oh, Won't you promise me
To live for another day
Those bottle won't wash away,
Won't wash away
The memories of you

Oh, if your gone
Those bottles won't wash away, won't wash away
Those memories of you
If you're gone
