You fell from the night like an angel from the stars,
To hold me tight,
I saw your burning eyes, lips of ice, wings of fire and snow,
Together are we until I die.

You are the moon above shining light on me
Like empty clouds we dance across the sky,
Watching dreams falling from your tears,
Together are we until I die.

Weeping tears of angel light, will you recall my name?
The blood warm mist within my veins,
The end is always the same.
I chase your dreams across the sky, how far is it till the end?
Weeping tears of angel light, take me to lost Eden.
