I know it ain't easy
To live up to your dreams
If you been "n" think you've seen it all
Forgetting the laughter
And the funny things we do
Yes it's true,
It's so easy to feel blue
When I was tired of this game
When it all did the same
When feelings was just a name
Oh, I was caught up in the middle
For a big surprise
The day i found you
The way that you found me
Oh I was caught up in the middle
When I realized
One look in your eyes
And it hit me deep inside
You give me the reasons
To play and purify
When you tell me
Just look up to the sky
Living is easy
When I find some sympathy
In the ones who stay close to me
When I was tired of this game
When it all did the same
When feelings was just a name
Oh, I was caught up in the middle
For a big surprise
The day i found you
The way that you found me
Oh I was caught up in the middle
When I realized
One look in your eyes
And it hit me deep inside
When I was tired of this game
It all did the same
When feelings was just a name
Oh, I was caught up in the middle
For a big surprise
The day i found you

The way that you found me
When I realized
One look in your eyes
