Tell me why you look so sad Little lion
Tell me what's been going on
With your broken heart and stolen desire

Tell me why you're feeling blue Little Lion
I would think you need a friend
If you do I'm here for you Little Lion

If you try to fly, you'll be going down
Life can be a drag while you're trying
There will come a day when you look around
You will find the ceiling got higher

Tell me 'bout your thousand dreams Little Lion
What the future holds for you
Somebody to come and nourish the fire

Cuz no matter how you try Little Lion
To escape the pace of time
You'll be glad for what you have Little Lion

When you fall to hard you forget your pride
You don't wanna be lost without it...
...

If you try to fly, you'll be going down
Life can be a drag while you're trying
There will come a day when you look around
You will find the ceiling got higher

Hope I'm being understood Little Lion
Try to fight those clouds away
They're not doing any good Little Lion

Tell me why you're feeling blue, Little Lion
Tell me what's been going on
You know I am here for you Little Lion
Tell me what's been going on Little Lion
Tell me why you look so sad, Little Lion
