"Age Of Agony"

Your tired eyes cannot light your path
This weariness! It's hard to stay awake
Time goes by. You can't afford to waste away
Your mission needs your strengths
In the dark it began
An irrational ban
Irreversible curse
I'm the only one left
With the might to fight back
In the battle of sound
Can't you tell, that you nearly missed
You've reached the end and it's coming strong
Fight your fear, no, you can't escape
Your fate, you're abused to justify it
Who created what I hear?
Every night all my fears
Stick together as one
Who composed all these themes
That pursue me in dreams?
Messengers of downfall
Age of agony
5th dimension nightmare
Death from the Rue d'Auseil
If Monsieur Blandot knew?
The window to the river...
