(D. Barrett, J. Gittleman)
Noise, noise, noise from down below It's coming from the basement It's underneath the house now And it's rockin' the foundation It's the noise we love to make and for year's we have been making while Doctor D watches TV his house is fking shaking (chorus)
he lets us practice in his place he's got a wife with a pretty face takes vacation, owns property Dr. Dalsimer, Dr. D.
In the daytime what's he doin?
Upstairs in the attic he's saving lives from ruin and sorting through the static he puts back together brains? I guess they're broken bip... and I'm not fking joking (chorus)
nice, nice, nice neighborhood and nice place to raise the kids they're tough strings to obtain but Dr. D. He did. worked hard to take it easy worked hard and wasn't lazy guitars drums, tones, saxophones he must be fking crazy (chorus)
