Tonight will leave me
Waiting for more
More of the only people
I'll ever care to know
Hold your breathe,
Don't close your eyes,
We'll relive these times
Sooner than later, I know

So when you walk on by
Just know that

I won't be too far behind

Tonight will leave us
Waiting for more
More of the only place
That we've ever called home
Raise our drinks up to the past
We swore tonight won't be our last
Sooner than later, we'll know
