

The Mile After "Worst Offender"

Visit "Worst Offender" on MotoLyrics.com

i found some peace of mind in things that drive me crazy you're the first, the worst offender plus you're enough to fill this page and bleed onto the next full of things that i need
off my chest

speak to me now tell me what you need you want her to leave cause your love life's lacking i got her picture on my wall she knows all the words i sing you don't even know what it feels like to need one person this much cause you're always running from them i hate this so much what should i do i'll forget you

you don't care if you offend her plus you're enough to kill
this page and bleed onto the next
