I wanna live a different me
Leaving my old mind
In a cup of tea
And chasing the sunshine
Eternally for free

Let me hear your paints
And I let you taste
And touch watcha see
Gimme more and after blow away
Cos I need you so
But I'm not so sure
And I want it more

I wanna kill your different me
Soaking your old mind
In a cup of tea
And chasing your shadow
Eternally for free

In my mind
In my mind
In my mind

And I may not be me
As you may not be you
We are out of us
And into them
And in all this confusion
I'm an ant in delirium
In the sky
