Everyday may be the same
But I'm happy to live my life now
I feel like I'm a man of my time
But I don't have to thank my generation
I used to criticize my hometown
But at the end I found I love it so

And that the world's not so bad
My life is not so boring
My days are not so empty
And I'm so proud to sing that

I'm so happy
That I was born in this
Foggy town
It'll always be the only
One I call home
And I'm so proud to sing that
I love my hometown
