I've just called Ramona
Deep feelings inside me
The sound of your voice is so warm
You color the wings of my heart

Age is not a wall
You give me something
Can touch me

Here is not too far from you
I don't lie to my mind
I'm reaching your heart today

I just saw Ramona
The deepest love I had
A great joy in my mind
All you make shine
They will never
Understand our love

You give me something
Can touch me
You give me something
Above all my loves

With your eyes you touch me
They're not able
To know what we feel

Oh my love, well
Our lives are so fast enough
I miss you
Please don't go away

I want my love
Why our lives are so fast don't know
Give me your love
I want you another time
