Take my heart with a grain of salt
It's been broken but it's no bodies fault
I can't move by
And I've paid the price
Many times over for everyone I know
I shouldn't be here
Many miles from everything that I hold dear
But life is fine
No matter how hard you fight

Now I'll have to go back to that place I know that
But I'm happy this time
I know that
This loves mine

I stuck around I played the hand I was dealt
I can only think one way and I only feel the way I felt
But you keep changing planes
Till it drove you insane
But we ended up pulling in at the same time keeps passin' me by
While I sit and wait for everything I can find
But life is fine
No matter how hard you fight

Yea yea yea
Yea yea yea
Yea yea yea
Yea yea yea

Now I'll have to (yea yea yea)
Go back to that place (yea yea yea)
I know that (yea yea yea)
But I'm happy (yea yea yea)
This time (yea yea yea)
I know that (yea yea yea)
This loves mine (yea yea yea)

I used to be afraid that I wouldn't find my love
But now I've found a way to end in my salvation
