Time may pass but you sure don't. You might as well be the person you told me you were from the beginning.
(You were a champ at making up a face.) At least he'll play his part in the role I've always wanted when the curtain closes hopefully a lesson will be learned.

B-b-b-b-Breakin' down.
Tt-t-t-t-tTake your time.
Well this isn't yours and this isn't mine so is this where we both go senseless

Well I guess I'm doing this for you

Woo.
The sky is on fire now who's the liar? You can't fight this feeling if there wasn't on there. (Don't think I didn't notice.) So don't take this out on me dont make this seem like rivalry. The sun will set just give it time. This is the result of every line you've ever dropped and this is me not catching them as they fall
