I know you've heard, ain't been doing a lot of talking
I don't have that much to say
I know you've seen, you know you're not forgotten
Haven't heard your voice in days

I'm beaten and feeling weak
And I'm so tired but I can't sleep
And this time the sting's deep
I'm lost inside and it's finally starting to show
And I know you know

And you know I tried to find those things that we were missing
But we were never the same
And I know it's me but I've been doing a lot of thinking,
And truthfully we both were wrong

I'm beaten and feeling weak
So tired but I can't sleep
And this time the sting's deep
I'm lost inside and it's finally starting to show
And I know you know

I'm beaten and feeling weak
So tired but I can't sleep
And I've got things to say but I cannot speak
I'm losing more faith with every week
And I'm lost inside, and it's finally starting to show
And I know you know
