Sick of boarding every place you wanna scream and shout

Feeling like it's time to change, get a little wild

Come up from behind the shade, be the rebel child

Gonna race them hell tonight

Cause it's alright, for you to be afraid

There's a spotlight, that's shining just for you

Go the distance, that you [?] really made of

[Chorus]

Watch me work, something different, something new

Watch me work, out the box, out the blue

Watch me work, something sexy, something fine

Watch me work, out the box, blow your mind

Watch me work

Set the status gonna replace, let them other burn

Show them that you're here to stay, tell them watch and learn

Time to put the wheels in motion, never to return

Get on with myself tonight

Cause it's alright, for you to be afraid

There's a spotlight, that's shining just for you

Go the distance, that you [?] really made of

[Chorus]

Watch me work, something different, something new

Watch me work, out the box, out the blue

Watch me work, something sexy, something fine

Watch me work, out the box, blow your mind

Watch me work

Time to break free from these chains

I'm on a mission, wanna live my life today

I thought I told you, I'm taking over

Talk it's cheap so it's back to if I should work

[Chorus]

Watch me work, something different, something new

Watch me work, out the box, out the blue

Watch me work, something sexy, something fine

Watch me work, out the box, blow your mind
Watch me work [X2]
