In my life
I've been the sun,
Shining my love of life
I ever want.
In my life I've been the moon
Hiding my face away,
From day to day,

Now I sit alone at night,
Looking through the prophets eye,
The sun was in black, I saw the moon leave,
Down on my knees I can see...

Changes in the sky, just like John said,
Changes in your mind,
Changes in your eyes, that's what John said,
Changes in your life...
That's what John said
That's what John said
That's what John said
That's what John said

In my time, I fell in love
Thought I was the only one,
The lonely one.
In my time, just like a rainy day
I blew the sun away, I blew my love away...

Now I sit alone at night,
Looking through the prophets eye,
The sun was in black, I saw the moon leave,
Down on my knees I can see...

Changes in the sky, just like John said,
Changes in your mind,
Changes in your eyes, that's what John said,
Changes in your life...
That's what John said
That's what John said
That's what John said
That's what John said
