A postcard becomes a symbol of lost romance for two separated lovers. Adult themes. No nudity. 1/2

Before loneliness will break my heart,

Send me a postcard darling.

How can I make you understand?

I wanna be a woman.

Here, here I'm waiting for a little sign,

Waiting 'til the end of time.

Send me a postcard darling.

Send me a postcard now.

Send me a postcard darling.

Send me a postcard now.

I can't take the lonely night,

I need someone I can turn to.

Look out the day I see a little sign,

Even though you're on my mind.

Yeah, oh please don't let me down.

There ain't no lover like me in town.

Send me a postcard darling.

Send me a postcard now.

Send me a postcard darling.

Send me a postcard now.

Before loneliness will break my heart,

Send me a postcard darling.

How can I make you understand?

I wanna be a woman.

Yeah, I'm waiting for a little sign,

Waiting 'til the end of time.
