"Up And Down"

Hey Jon, can you count to four?
1, 2, 3, 4
I look up and see a pigeon flying high and free
I look down and then the sidewalk is what I see
I look up and see the sky
I look down and see the ground
I look at you and sing a song about up and down
I look up and see a sky scraper, yes I do
I look down and see my foot and then I see my shoe
I look up and see the sky
I look down and see the ground
I look at you and sing a song about up and down
I look up and see the ceiling and nothing more
I look down and see the rug, then I see the floor
I look up and see the sky
I look down and see the ground
I look at you and sing a song about up and down
Oh, up and down, and down
Up and down
