[Kermit]

Is there more I could have said?
Now they're only pictures in my head.
That's why my green is feeling grey
Sometimes even frogs have rainy days.
Remember when the stage caved in when you were rocking out?
Who'd have thought your smorgasbord would be hard to live without?
If we could do it all again, just another chance to entertain
Would anybody watch or even care?
Or did something break we can't repair?
Your cannonball trajectory, it always gave me hope.
They may have been unbearable but I still loved your jokes
Is there more I could have said?
Now they're only pictures in my head.

[All]

Could we do it all again?
Make them laugh like we did then?
{Mumbling}
We could harmonize for one more song

[Kermit]

But I'm standing here instead.
Now they're only pictures in my head
