So think about yourself,
Before you start shitting from the mouth.
And saying things that you don't know,
Or think twice to care about.
So think about yourself.

We know what you're doing,
And you are doing it all wrong.
We know from your closet,
And your saliva in these songs.
But spit don't mean shit, when your blood pumps this thick.
But spit don't mean shit,
And your sweat isn't sweat when it's currency.

So think about yourself,
Before you start shitting from your mouth.
Think about your health,
And the ones that you love.
So think about yourself,
Before you start shitting from your mouth.
Think about your health,
And the ones that you love.

The only way to escape a rumor in this town,
Is to fake your own death.
Hey that's what I did!
Hey that's what I did!
And that's what you should do.

The only way to escape a rumor in this town,
Is to fake your own death.

The only way to escape a rumor in this town,
Is to fake your own death.

So think about yourself,
Before you start shitting from your mouth.
Think about your health,
And the ones that you love.
So think about yourself,
Before you start shitting from your mouth.

Think about your health,
And the ones that you love.

The only way to escape a rumor in this town,
Is to fake your own death,
So that's what I did.

The only way to escape a rumor in this town,
Is to fake your own death,
So that's what I did.

The only way to escape a rumor in this town,
Is to fake your own death,
And that's what you should do too!
