Let's see how it feels (let's see how it feels)
So thought to stick to what you've earned
What de you believe in? (what de you believe in?)
No matter what they say

You better board the right ship
Cause sinking has never been so easy
Like a stone in this sea of strangers

This time you better watch out
Out of the line, I won't be pushed around
Cause there is one too many lessons
Far too many ways to learn
We'll make it, make sense

Let's see how it feels (let's see how it feels)
Doing the dance to prove them wrong
Is this even real? No doubt
It's bound to hit the ground

You better board the right ship
Cause sinking has never been so easy
Like a stone in this sea of strangers

This time you better watch out
Out of the line, I won't be pushed around
Cause there is one too many lessons
Far too many ways to learn
We'll make it, make sense

Can't you see that everything's wrong
Time had come for us to move on
Here's our chance to take it back
Spread attack and make this world our own
I'll stick around and solve the problem
Only now the clock is ticking
Out of time and out of breath
I'm out of breath but drowning won't take me away

Let's see how it feels

This time you better watch out
Out of the line, I won't be pushed around
Cause there is one too many lessons
Far too many ways to learn
