"Broken Soul"

Visit "Broken Soul" on MotoLyrics.com

You're on the ground without chance
You're under fuckin' pressure
And no one understands you

You really need to go on
And leave the desperation
But your soul is broken

I know your feelings of disillusion
Don't let them smack you down
Kill the past, future is calling

Nothing is the same!
You're feeling like you gonna start a new life
Remember what I said, your own future's in your hands
You can paint it on the memories that make you sick of life

You feel like you have no reason to live
And that you're lost, trapped
Far away from everything you loved
You are wrong!
As you can hear this song is made for you
And I say nothing's lost
Nothing is lost forever

When fighting's the only good solution
Don't waste your time again
Everything can be left away
