Wait, can you feel it moving?
Hey, the distance is shrinking
Feel it spin out of control
I can feel it all ending
Time is wastefully spending
All things move toward their end

Be it the birth of a star
Or a kiss between friends
The distance is shrinking
It's unavoidable, sweet thing
Another life has begun
In the kingdom of men
Both things are moving
It's unavoidable, sweet thing

Yeah, yeah, yeah!
You cannot run from it, darling
All things are moving toward their end
