"Diana Goodbye"

Visit "Diana Goodbye" on MotoLyrics.com

So Diana you're leaving
You'll be gone by this evening
You've found a new love
and I'm pleased for you

So Diana you're sad now
But you ought to be glad now
You've found a new love
and he's true

So Diana we say goodbye
And the tears are falling from your eye....
Could it be?
Diana do you still love me?

So Diana we say goodbye
And the tears are falling from your eye....
Could it be?
Diana do you still love me

So Diana you're leaving
You'll be gone by this evening
You've found a new love
You've found a new love
and he's a true love
Diana, goodbye
